

Kanine Korner

By Francis X. Lohmann

Trula Anderson dedicated these heartfelt lines to a beloved departed little dog. Though I hate to leave the ones I love, I know they'll understand. For a golden leash and chain linked halo. Led me to the promised land. As I gracefully took the hurdle. Over Heaven's enchanted wall. I saw the canine angels. They all came over to greet me. Then I knew I at last was home. And that some day you would be here too. Master and dog for ever free to roam.

named Mijo, from Anchorage, Alaska, is America's Dog Hero for 1967. The St. Bernard swam to the aid of her 13-year-old mistress when a mud slide plunged the teenager into chin-deep water where her feet became hopelessly stuck in the mire. As Mijo reached her side, the desperate girl seized the dog's collar, and the powerful dog pulled her free of the clinging mud and towed her to safety on a nearby bank. The gallant dog received numerous awards, including a gold-plated leash, a $1,000 U.S. Savings Bond and a year's supply of dog food, at a dinner in her honor at Chicago's Palmer House. In today's column for the edification of my readers who like to attend dog shows, I'm launching a new segment—a Dog Show Directory, billboarding upcoming all breed and specialty breed dog shows and obedience trials. The directory will appear bi-monthly.

DOG SHOW DIRECTORY—Nov. 12, Silver State Kennel Club all breed dog show and obedience trial, Convention Center, Las Vegas, Nev.; San Diego Dachshund Club, Park, El Cajon; Chihuahua fun match, Orange Empire Dog Clubhouse, Fontana; Nov. 19, Tucson Kennel Club, Hi Corbett Field, Tucson, Arizona; Nov. 26, Sequoia Kennel Club all breed dog show and obedience trial, Fairgrounds, Tulare, Dec. 10, Antelope Valley Kennel Club all breed dog show and obedience trial, Fairgrounds, Lancaster.

BOWSER BROWSINGS—The number one dog in Spain is the German Shepherd, with the Poodle close behind. Then come Dachshunds, Dalmatians and Brittany Spaniels. In Italy, the Pointer ranks first followed by the English Setter, German Short-haired Pointer, German Shepherd and the Brittany Spaniel. No one seems to know why a puppy chases his tail, but logically it is because an exuberant pup will chase most anything. This is merchandise: Dogs of Distinction, Inc., a pet shop in New York City, advertises—"Chihuahua selected by Xavier Cuatrecasas on a green velvet calling card embossed in gold lettering. How about that?"

BREED OF THE WEEK—Belgian Sheepdog. A large portion of the dog loving public often confuses the Belgian Sheepdog with the German Shepherd. However, to the initiated eye can be seen several structural differences which make it easy to distinguish one breed from another. But there is enough resemblance to indicate that the two breeds are related. Both the German Shepherd and the Belgian Sheepdog are descended from dogs which served as farm and herd dogs in Central Europe for many hundreds of years. The Belgian Sheepdog is one of the most trainable of all canines. He is an active and alert dog but does not easily take up with strangers.

dogs with heart disease can be extended for several years, it is doubtful that dogs recognize themselves in a mirror; you and I do because we have been taught to do so since childhood. In feeding eggs, allow your dog only the yellow yoke.

THE BELGIAN Sheepdog Club of America has contributed so much in behalf of their chosen breed. Belgian Sheepdog entries at top flight dog shows have brought them to the attention of thousands of dog lovers. The Belgian Sheepdog tips the scales at about 60 pounds and in height 23 inches.

NEW TIME—LISTEN TO FRANCIS X. LOHMANN'S RADIO VERSION OF KANINE KORNER, MONDAY THROUGH FRIDAY AT 4:15 P.M. OVER KTYM, 1460 KCS.
